SEVEN FUTURE EVENTS THAT WILL SHAKE THE WORLD

by
ED HINDSON

In many ways, the current catastrophe is but a microcosm of the real End Time disasters that are predicted in Scripture. Jesus did, in fact, warn that the days before His Second Coming would be "as the days of Noah" when the "flood came, and took them all away" (Matthew 24:37-39). Every act of God's judgment is an act of mercy, warning us of even greater judgment to come.

The Bible predicts at least seven future events that are destined to shake the world in the "last days."

1. Millions Missing

One of the most incredible prophecies of the Bible is the prediction of the Rapture of the Church (1 Thess. 4:13-17). In this passage, the Apostle Paul predicts that one day the "dead in Christ" will be resurrected and "we which are alive" will be raptured (Greek, harpazo) into the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. This reunion of believers is called the "blessed hope" of the Church (Titus 2:13).

The Rapture is a totally different event from the return of Christ to judge the world and set up His kingdom on earth. At the Rapture, millions of born-again believers will be "caught up" into the air to meet the Lord who is coming to claim His Bride and take her home to the Father's house in heaven (John 14:1-4). In the Return, the Bride comes back from heaven with Christ at Armageddon to defeat the Antichrist and initiate the kingdom of Christ on earth for 1,000 years (Rev. 19-20).

2. USA Out/New Power In

One thing we must always bear in mind is that the Rapture changes everything! If millions of believers were suddenly snatched away to glory, the United States, especially, would be thrown into economic, social, political and spiritual chaos. Assuming that a significant percentage of Americans are true believers, their sudden absence would leave the USA a second-rate power, literally overnight. What happened with Katrina would pale into a distant memory in light of a much greater national crisis.

Biblical prophecies indicate that the major player in the end times scenario will be Europe (cf. Daniel 9). The emergence of the European Union has galvanized more than 350 million people into a political and economic powerhouse that is destined to fill the global power vacuum after the Rapture. This will inevitably lead to a shift in international policies toward Israel in the last days.

3. World Peace Promised

The Bible predicts the rise of a global dictator who will promise to bring peace to the world during the troubling days after the Rapture. II Thess. 2:1-12 indicates that the wicked one cannot come on the scene until after the removal of the Restrainer. A careful reading of this passage indicates that the Antichrist will rise to power after the Rapture of the Church.

The Book of Revelation calls this world ruler the "Beast" (Rev. 13:1-10). It describes him controlling a global economy, a world government and a world religion in which he claims to be divine and insists that he be worshipped as God. It also portrays a "false prophet" who assists the Beast in his global deception and world rule (Rev. 13:11-18). However, in the end, the Antichrist's promise of peace will culminate in plunging the world into the most terrible wars the planet has ever known.

4. Two Dead Men Walking

Revelation 11:3-12 predicts the appearance of "two witnesses" who will proclaim the message of Jesus Christ in Jerusalem in the days following the Rapture. Their clear message will be accompanied by miraculous signs that indicate their functions will be like that of Moses (plagues) and Elijah (fire from heaven). These are also the two witnesses that appeared with Jesus on the mount of transfiguration (Matt. 17:1-3).

The Antichrist will suddenly turn against these two men, kill them and leave their dead bodies in the streets of Jerusalem for public display. But after three and a half days, they will be miraculously resurrected and raptured into heaven (Rev. 11:11-12). This dramatic event will be witnessed by the whole world, presumably on satellite television. It will serve as a final warning to those who have rejected the Gospel and been left behind during the Great Tribulation.

5. Jewish Temple Rebuilt

was built by King Solomon. It was destroyed in 586 B.C. by the Babylonians. The second Temple was built by Zerubbabel in 515 B.C. It was later remodeled by King Herod and destroyed by the Romans in A.D. 70. Today, there is no Jewish temple on the sacred Temple Mount. Instead, the Moslem shrine, the Dome of the Rock, has sat on the Temple Mount for more than 1,300 years, since A.D. 691.

Nevertheless, the Bible predicts that the Antichrist ("man of sin") will enter the Jewish temple in the last days and insist that he be worshipped as God (II Thess. 2:3-4). This prophecy presupposes the existence of another Jewish temple in the future. Since the Dome of the Rock now sits on the previous site of the Temple, this would seem to predict the eventual destruction of the Dome of the Rock and the rebuilding of the Jewish temple in its place, perhaps under the auspices and protection of the Antichrist himself.

6. Holocaust Eclipsed

One of the most serious biblical prophecies points to the invasion of Jerusalem in the biblical last days. While Israel is dwelling securely, she will suddenly be invaded by hordes of old Gentile nations. Both the Old Testament (Ezekiel 38-39; Joel 2:1-11; Zechariah 14:1-3) and the New Testament (Matt. 24:15-28; Rev. 16:1-21) predict an assault on Jerusalem in the end times.

The prophet Daniel predicts the coming world ruler will break his treaty agreement with Israel, desecrate the Temple and attack the city of Jerusalem (Daniel 9:26-27). John the Revelator pictures Jerusalem falling (Rev. 11:13) and the remnant fleeing into the wilderness (Rev. 12:13-17). Jesus warned that unless those days were shortened, no one would survive (Matt. 24:21-22). But unlike the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70, this time God will intervene to deliver His people.

7. God Comes to Earth

The great climax of biblical prophecy is the Triumphal Return of Jesus Christ described in Rev. 19:11-16. He returns from heaven to earth to win the Battle of Armageddon (Rev. 16:16), defeat the Beast and the False Prophet and cast Satan into the abyss for 1,000 years (Rev. 19:19-20:3). Only His return will bring peace to the planet and an end to human hostilities.

In the Person of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace, God comes to earth to reign and rule in peace and righteousness. This will be an unprecedented time of blessing and prosperity only to be exceeded by eternity itself when all the saints of God dwell together in the New Jerusalem (Rev. 21-22).

The final prophecies of the Revelation end with an invitation. Jesus speaks one last time, urging us to "testify. . . these things in the churches" (Rev. 22:16). Then the Revelation adds: "And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that hears say, Come. And let him that is athirst, come. And whosoever will, let him take of the water of life freely" (Rev. 22:17). Prophecy is not written to frighten us, but to invite us to come to Christ while there is still time. You and I have an invitation to dine with the King. But we must decide to accept His invitation before it's too late (Rev. 3:20).

WHY WE'RE STILL HERE by Dave Breese

Growing in Grace--The first reason we are still here is very, very clear in Scripture. God leaves us in this world for the purpose of what the Bible calls growing in grace. Peter takes the time to give us one last admonition at the end of his second epistle. "But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (II Peter 3:18). That wonderful process of grace takes place in salvation because we take the time to read, study, and memorize the Word of God. Growth in grace comes as a result of knowledge of the Word of God plus time. Pressures and problems come in order that they may produce in us this marvelous result of spiritual growth. When you have grown spiritually, that brings a concomitant capability, maturity, articulation, ability to do other things that greatly matter for Christ. The greatest need in the Church of our time is the need for mature Christians.

Being the Salt of the Earth--In the Sermon on the Mount, Christ spoke to believers in Him, and He said, "You are the salt of the earth" (Matt. 5:13). What would happen without the salt of the earth? The world will discover one day, and the answer to that will be the Great Tribulation. But in the meantime, we as believers are called upon to bear any burden, to face any challenge, and to solve any problem, in order that the influence of Christ in our lives may work in society.

Being the Light of the World--Christ said, "I am the light of the world: he that follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life" (John 8:12). You are commissioned to carry this marvelous Word to the ends of the earth. You, with your life, and the words that you say, are to be a source of illumination to a lost mankind.

Being a Witness for Christ--"It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father has put in His own power. But you shall receive power, after the Holy Spirit is come upon you; and you shall be witnesses unto Me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth" (Acts 1:7-8). Christ has commissioned every individual believer to be, not only a follower of His, but an articulate, personal witness for Christ--a high calling indeed.

Protecting the World from Judgment--To protect the world from divine judgment - do Christians do that? Yes, they do. This is the Church Age, the Day of Grace in which God is calling out of the world a people for His Name, and they become the members of a great organism, called the Body of Christ, the Church. It's the presence of the Body of Christ in the world that protects the world from judgment. THE WORLD IS STILL HERE BECAUSE WE ARE HERE!

• • • • •

In the midst of the recent disasters, we found amazing stories of the Church at work. Valiant soldiers of the cross fought flood and famine to rescue fragile lives. They battled for a greater cause--not only saving lives but also redeeming lost souls--by sharing the Good News of salvation through faith in Christ. The Bible says that, "God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved" (John 3:17).

THE TIDE OF OUR TIMES

“TEXTBOOK COULD PUT BIBLE INTO SCHOOLS--

Seeking to defuse a central controversy of the culture wars, a Bible advocacy group will unveil a new textbook [...] that could open the door to widespread Bible courses in public high schools.

The textbook, titled ‘The Bible and Its Influence,’ was written to thread a constitutional and legal needle by teaching, not preaching, about the Bible [...].

[...] Courts and school districts have wrestled for decades over how or whether to teach the Bible. Scholars have been looking for a way to teach about the Bible in public schools for years [...].

A source of faithful inspiration to many, the Bible is also a cultural touchstone that’s crucial to young students [...].

The new book includes sections explaining the Bible’s influence on literature, art, music and history. [...]”

Steven Thomma,
Knight Ridder Newspapers

“DOUBLE STANDARDS OF MAINLINE DENOMINATIONS--

Several mainline Protestant denominations are increasing the hostility toward Israel. They have ignored the Biblical warnings about those who do not support Israel and are calling now for economic sanctions (designed to punish the Jewish people). These ‘mainline’ churches are demanding that businesses divest themselves of any holdings and facilities located in Israel. Their denominational leaders are blaming Israel for the terrorism in the Middle East and around the world. It is ridiculous and unbelievable - but it is true!”

David Hocking, Israel Watch

“QUIETLY THE EU GAINS SUPER POWER STATUS--

Americans for years have tended to think of the European Union as merely an extension of the Common Market [...]. But evidence is mounting that the EU does not only aspire to be a counterweight to the United States in global affairs; it has already become one.

With the largest market on Earth, it does much to regulate global commerce - even that which takes place beyond its borders.

[...] And increasingly, countries in other regions of the world are looking not to America but to Europe as a model for the future.

‘The Europeans have developed a different kind of power, which is more effective in a world of globalization and democracy, where military power has very high costs associated with it,’ said Mark Leonard, the author of Why Europe Will Run the 21st Century. [...]

[...] ‘There are about 80 countries around the world that cover 1.5 billion people for whom the European Union is the most important and critical player,’ said Leonard, director of foreign policy for the London-based Center for European Reform [...].”

Oxford Press,

by Don Melvin of Cox News Service

“IN JOHN 14:6 [JESUS] STATES, ‘I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life, no man cometh unto the Father but by Me.’ But now a new Newsweek/Beliefnet poll is showing a shocking number of people who call themselves evangelical and born-again have come to reject those words. The question in the poll read: ‘Can a good person who isn’t of your religious faith go to heaven or attain salvation, or not?’

According to the poll results [...], 68 percent of evangelical Christians believe ‘good’ people of other faiths can also go to heaven. [...]

Americans have become so focused on a very personal style of worship [...] that spiritual experience has begun to supplant dogma, or teaching based on the authority of the Bible.”

Fred Jackson,

Agape Press

“IN A SOBERING CONFIRMATION of the thesis of ‘China: The Gathering Threat,’ a new book by Constantine Menges, the Pentagon will soon tell us that China’s military budget continues to skyrocket. It now has the third, some say second, largest military budget in the world [...].

[...] If we don’t yet feel threatened by China’s rapid and ongoing militarization, we certainly should, Menges argues.[...] He calls China ‘a gathering danger hidden in plain view,’ pointing out that the Beijing regime has, since 1990, ‘defined the United States as its “main enemy”, [...] and explicitly threatened to destroy entire American cities if the U.S. were to help the democratic country of Taiwan defend itself against Chinese military assault.’ China’s ultimate goal, Menges points out, is to become the hegemon, dethroning the United States as the world’s dominant power. [...]”

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Q. Does Jesus' statement in John 6:40 mean that the Rapture will not happen until just prior to His return at Armageddon?

A. This verse reads: "And this is the will of Him that sent Me, that every one which sees the Son, and believes on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day" (John 6:40). The terms "last day" and "last days" are used frequently in the Bible to refer to different points of end-time prophecy. Therefore, one must look carefully at the context of each instance, to determine its true meaning. In this particular case, Jesus was discussing those who would obtain salvation through belief in Him. In other words, He was talking about members of the Church, which is His Body. The "last day" of the Church Age is the day when Jesus returns for us at the Rapture and resurrection. At that time, He will take the Church home to be with Him in heaven.

Christ's Second Advent, at the conclusion of the Tribulation, may be construed by some as being the "last day" of the Tribulation. But more importantly it is a "first day" as well, as it marks the beginning of His 1,000 year millennial reign. This is an additional reason why we believe that the statement in John 6:40 more properly refers to the Rapture and resurrection.

Q. Why should I pray, since it seems like God never answers?

A. Almost all prayers are answered by the words "better" and "later." God normally gives us something much better than we have requested. Usually, His answers come later as well. This is the case because patience is also a virtue that He is developing in us. In the meantime, never stop praying and believing, for the Scripture says, "The effectual, fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." There are a number of good books out on the subject of prayer that may be helpful to you. Your local Christian bookstore should have most of these.

Q. Why doesn't God help me more if He really loves me?

A. First of all, be sure that God really loves you, for He has said this many times in His Word, "But God commends His love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us" (Rom. 5:8). We are even called "beloved" in the Bible (1 Jn. 3:2). Sometimes, however, excessive help is not love, but indulgence. Sending His Son to die for us is the greatest love. In His Son, if we believe in Him, He also gives us all things (Rom. 8:32).

Q. How come the Bible is so hard to understand?

A. Often, this appears to be the case because the Bible doesn't say what we think it should say. For instance, the Bible says that we are saved by grace rather than by personal goodness (Eph. 2:8,9) and this is confusing to many who think of themselves as being good.

My suggestion, first read the things in the Bible that you do understand. You may find that you will come to understand more than you can imagine. Just as a child does not understand adult matters, so we need to be spiritually mature to understand the Bible. This understanding becomes knowledge that turns out to be most exciting.

Q. What is the standard of success in the ministry?

A. Paul gave us help on this when he said about Jesus Christ, "Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus" (Col. 1:28). For Paul then, success was not huge, impressive corporate success. It was not big things, but the production of individual competence. If a Christian leader is not producing individual capability, he is really not doing very much. Today's Christianity militates against this by inveighing against "individualism." But really, individual spiritual competence should be the goal of all efforts for Christ.

Q. Sometimes I doubt my salvation. What shall I do?

A. The assurance of salvation comes from knowing the basis of salvation in the first place. Do not look at your life but rather remember that you are saved purely by the grace of God. Human works--before, during, or after salvation--are not what get us to heaven. We are saved, "not by works of righteousness which we have done." The guarantee of your salvation is the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.
