ALL THE TREASURES

From the writings
of
Dave Breese

Anow familiar expression has worked its way into the parlance of our time. It is usually used to describe the fulfillment of the desires of the achiever who is working toward the day when he will be rich and famous. The expression is called, "having it all." The ambitious man of our world looks forward to the day when his combined accumulations of fame, fortune, possessions will mean that he is looked upon as "having it all."

How many stories of the lives of people have turned into the sad account of a bright beginner who ends up in the ditch next to the road of life! He traveled too fast and ran out beyond any guidance that was available to him. In pursuit of the ambition of having it all, he ended up with nothing. "You can have it all in this world" is the voice of the serpent. It was heard first by Eve in the Garden of Eden and went on from there to rule the world.

When, however, we think a little further, we notice that we have the promise of a great treasure which includes everything that matters. The Bible, speaking about Jesus Christ, says, "In whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge" (Col. 2:3). Yes, contrary to the lying beguilements of this world, all the treasures are available to the Christian. The believer, united to Jesus Christ, is inseparably connected with the One in whom is hidden every treasure imaginable. "All the treasures of wisdom and knowledge" is really a very spacious expression. We can be encouraged by thinking of just some of those treasures which belong to us because we belong to Christ.

1. The treasure of salvation. The person who believes the Gospel of Jesus Christ has now been reconciled to God "in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy and unblamable and unreprouvable in His sight" (Col. 1:22). Jesus Christ, by His death on Calvary's cross, has promised to us that, having believed in Him, we will one day be presented to God holy, unblamable and unreprouvable. The Christian is the possessor of imputed righteousness, and nothing can be laid to his charge whatsoever. He has perfect standing, complete salvation in the sight of God.

What makes this salvation a great treasure is that it is eternal salvation. It is valuable beyond measure because it never can be taken from us. How sad that the "salvation" in which many Christians believe is frothy and flighty and can disappear in a moment's notice. This is not a treasure, nor is it salvation at all.

2. Sanctification. The person who believes the Gospel has eternal salvation, but also he is set apart eternally to fulfill the purpose of God in his life. It is already true about us that God "has raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: That in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us through Christ Jesus" (Eph. 2:6,7). Amazingly, the Christian already has a firm and confirmed reservation. It's as if he were already in heaven, seated with Christ. That is what we joyously call "positional sanctification."

3. Wisdom. The treasure of wisdom is ours in Jesus Christ. Here we have a commodity of value so immense that it cannot be measured. Because there is such an infinite repository of wisdom with God, James is able to say, "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that gives to all men liberally, and upbraids not; and it shall be given him" (James 1:5). Foolishness, therefore, is not a Christian trait and should be pursued by no believer.

Let us suggest that there are at least two kinds of wisdom which we should desire, one is academic and the other is practical. The wisdom that comes from schooling is marvelously helpful in understanding deeper things. The wisdom that comes from experience enables us to carry on in real life. Both forms of this wonderful thing called wisdom come to us with the compliments of Jesus Christ Himself.

4. Knowledge. This inexhaustible treasure also is hidden in Jesus Christ and comes to us with His compliments. We suggest that there is, first of all, that most necessary knowledge, the knowledge of God. We could really know little about God were it not for the Revelation of Jesus Christ. Nature teaches us of the power of God but tells us, in its capriciousness, little about His love. Jesus Christ, in His person and in His work on the cross, reveals a God who loved us enough to die for us.

In Christ, we also have the knowledge of holy things. One of the grievous problems of our generation is that it is so gross and insensate that nothing is holy. The culture is without discernment and this is a condition that is not likely to change, apart from the wide dissemination of the knowledge of God. For our world, nothing is good, nothing is bad, nothing is praiseworthy--all this because of the lack of the knowledge of holy things.

5. Friendship. The Bible announces that the believer is "in Christ" and also makes clear that Christ is in the believer. Therefore, we who know the Lord Jesus have a way of becoming instant friends with one another. The world knows nothing of what we understand by "the fellowship of the saints," but we surely do. This is because, whatever our status in life, we have been united in the Lord Jesus. We are friends of God and the treasured corollary of this relationship is that we are friends with one another.

We note that Paul has told us of our unity in Jesus Christ, "lest any man should beguile you with enticing words" (Col. 2:4). The implication is that when we have Christ, that we have the best that there is. There is nothing better, nothing more beautiful, nothing in the world more wonderful than Jesus Christ Himself. Indeed, the essence of Christianity is not its dogmas, but rather the person who stands behind it all.

How wonderful that we are promised that we are a part of the kingdom of God's dear Son, "in whom we have redemption through His blood, even the forgiveness of sins: Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature" (Col. 1:14,15).

Yes, Jesus Christ is the one in whom all fullness dwells (Col.

1:19). I am His and He is mine.

It is time for each one of us to believe this marvelous truth once again with a total of our faith. The Christian community of our time has a hundred denominations and a thousand programs. All of these things, however, are not to be compared with our association with Jesus Christ, in whom dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. It is, therefore, time to rejoice and to redouble our efforts for Christ that the world may know of Him. Before He comes again, may this be our great commitment.

THE HIGHLANDS

Speak to me, oh ye mountains
And tell me, what would you say
At the thought that you are not that massive,
But only papier-mache'
That you were merely put there
In a moment of finite time
To be the instructive backdrop
For a play with a plot most sublime?

In fact, are you not the product
Of a skyquake unspeakably great,
Which came in a past day of judgment,
When a culture repented too late?
Is your breathless height not now a witness,
With your deep crevasses as well,
Of the power of the Lord of the cosmos,
The realness of heaven and hell?

We shall learn from your jagged protrusions
The serious nature of things;
How the God of the vales and the summits
Is more than "The Lord of the Rings."
We therefore shall serve the Creator
Who sustains all He ever has made;
Then we'll meet in the highlands of heaven
Where towering joys never fade.

THE TIDE OF OUR TIMES

HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO YOU AND YOURS! "In everything. . .with thanksgiving," says the Word of God, and that formula will not fail to bring encouragement and blessing to any heart.

"A BOOMING BIBLE INDUSTRY is turning [China], the world's biggest atheist nation, into the world's largest supplier of the Good Book... Since its first Bible rolled off the presses two decades ago, Amity Printing, [located in Nanjing], has turned out more than 50 million copies in 75 languages and exported to more than 60 countries. The company is on its way to becoming the biggest Bible factory in the world, cranking out 12 million copies a year."

"CONTRARY TO MEDIA Hysteria about polar bears facing extinction, polar bear expert Dr. Mitch Taylor notes: 'Of the 13 populations of polar bears in Canada, 11 are stable or increasing in number.' Indeed the current polar bear population of 20,000-25,000 is four to five times the population of 50 years ago."

The New American

"ATTACKING GOD—AN END TIMES PASTIME—Christians can expect increasing attacks on the God of the Bible and biblical truth as the coming of the Antichrist draws near...

Most disturbing are efforts to encourage young people to renounce faith in God. The Rational Response Squad (RRS)—via the video website, 'YouTube'—recently called on youths to create videos to renounce the 'sky God of Christianity.' Those who post a video at RRS are encouraged to not only 'deny the Holy Spirit,' but also to record their video in a church or outside of a church, and plug their own atheist website or project. RRS cofounder Brian Sapient said their 'blasphemy challenge' had already received some 490 entries [as of earlier this year]."

World Prophetic Ministry
Prophetic News Letter

"JORDAN IS PALESTINE?—Jordanians are in an uproar over the thesis that Jordan is the true home for 'Palestinians.' Revival of the 'Jordanian option' comes from voices in Israel and the U.S. who feel it is the only way to prevent the formation of a Palestinian state...

Israeli MK Benny Elon noted that although Arabs call Israel 'Palestine' today, the words 'Palestinian homeland' can mean Jordan as well. 'Certainly Abdullah himself remembers that the original Palestine includes Jordan—but perhaps he assumes that everyone else does not.'

Indeed, the area that the League of Nations and British rulers recognized as 'Palestine' nearly 100 years ago includes modern-day Israel and Jordan. The Arabs of Judea and Samaria could be rightfully 'annexed' to Jordan." WPM

"RUSSIA'S LIBYAN TIES—Are two allies of 'Gog' falling into place? Russian Prime Minister Vladimir Putin has promised Libya's Col. Muammar Qaddafi that Moscow would boost economic and military ties with Tripoli... Putin and Qaddafi agreed to continue 'the useful confidential dialogue' between the two countries...All told, the two leaders signed ten agreements on trade, economics, and military cooperation." WPM

"INDIA—LAND ON THE MARCH—India is large, almost beyond imagination. Its three largest cities, Mumbai, Calcutta and Delhi, dwarf New York, Los Angeles and Houston... Each year, more economic freedom (an open economy operating under the rule of law) generates more economic growth. That, in turn, means a higher income for the average person... Meanwhile, Indian firms are becoming worldwide companies. The Tata Group, planning to produce a mass-market car to sell at $2,500, also bought the Land Rover and Jaguar automobile lines from Ford. It has recently invested several billion dollars in major manufacturing projects in the United States."

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Q. Why do we have prophecy in the Bible?

A. God does not want to keep us in the dark about the future. The only way we can know the future is through the prophetic Word in the Bible. Fulfilled prophecy is also the great evidence that the Bible is the Word of God, and that God presides above history.

Q. Is the Antichrist alive today?

A. It is true that a dreadful world ruler will appear "who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called god, or that is worshiped, so that he as god, sits in the temple of God, showing himself that he is god" (2 Thess. 2:4). Many related signs of the end time indicate the strong possibility that we face the consummation of history. With this in mind, it is entirely possible that the Antichrist is now alive. Indeed, we are moving from the possible to the probable.

Q. Who is the false prophet?"

A. He is the one described in Scripture as "another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke as a dragon. And he exercises all the power of the first beast (the Antichrist) before him, and causes the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed" (Rev. 13:11,12). The false prophet will help the Antichrist bring together a global religion, a vast, ecumenical "church." His ultimate fate is that he, with the Antichrist, will be "cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone" (Rev. 19:20).

Q. What is reconstructionism?

A. It is generally the view that the mandate of the Church is to "reconstruct" the social structure and bring to pass a greatly improved world. It will be a world fit to be the one to which Jesus Christ returns. Reconstructionists being, in effect, utopians, are certainly troubled by such verses as "but evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived" (2 Tim. 3:13). The world will not be reconstructed, it will be destroyed by fire (2 Pet. 3:10). This will then make way for the promised "new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea" (Rev. 21:1).

Q. What is the mission of the Church?

A. In whatever else the Church may involve itself, its core mission must be to bring to the world the "hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began" (Tit. 1:2).

Q. Why are there so many cults?

A. The basic reason is because there are so many cult promoters and so many weak, acquiescent people who will believe anything. Even churches and denominations can move from Christian to cultic. Many have! The way of protection against the cults is to read and believe the Bible. We invite anyone to write for The Marks of a Cult from Christian Destiny.

Q. I hear that we will one day receive new bodies. Is this true?

A. Yes, thank God, it is true. The Scripture says, "For our citizenship is in heaven; from where also we look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body, according to the working whereby He is able even to subdue all things unto Himself" (Phil. 3:20-21). What will these bodies be like? The Scripture says, "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it does not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is" (1 Jn. 3:2).

Heaven will be a place which is wonderful beyond description. When we go to heaven, we will be given glorified, magnificent bodies so that we can properly appreciate the magnificent joys which will be ours when we arrive at our heavenly home.

Q. Many Christians have many moral shortcomings in their lives. How can this be changed?

A. This can be changed when the Church begins to preach on the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. Speaking about His appearing, the Scripture says, "And every man that has this hope in Him purifies himself, even as He is pure" (1 Jn. 3:3). When we believe that Christ may come at any moment, we will be very careful about what we say, do, believe and with whom we associate. We need to quit singing "Kum Bah Yah" and sing again "Jesus May Come Today."

Q. I have a very troubled heart, what can I do?

A. Begin by trusting the Scripture, which says, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ" (Rom. 5:1). When we are truly saved, then we can avail ourselves of the promise: "Be anxious for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" (Phil. 4:6,7).

YOUR ETERNAL REWARD Triumph and Tears at the Judgment Seat of Christ

by Erwin Lutzer

This softcover (4 1/4" x 7") book challenges widespread misconceptions about the Judgment Seat of Christ that have emptied it of its meaning. Although Christians have been justified by faith, Christ will still judge them for the "deeds [done] in the body...whether good or bad" (2 Corinthians 5:10). How well or poorly we do here might indeed determine our status in heaven for all eternity.
