THE FORMER THINGS, THE THINGS OF OUR PRESENT EXPERIENCE, WILL ALL PASS AWAY.

With what seems like an ever-increasing speed, we're moving from the past through the present and into the future. This is the way God has set things up in this world, and therefore the Scripture advises as to our attitude toward the passing of time. It says, "Forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth to those things which are before" (Phil. 3:13). Therefore, God has advised us to not be unduly influenced by the past, but to be filled with anticipation for the days to come. We are to be "reaching forth" to the things that lie before.

What then is in the future for the believer? In that the child of God is a creature of eternity, we can be sure that God will preside above our lives in this world and bring us into His eternal dwelling place and that for ever and ever. God presides above the future, and therefore we can be confident in the message of Scripture as to what that future contains. The things that lie before include the following:

"Forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth to those things which are before..."
(Phil 3:13).

"THE SCENARIO OF THE FUTURE"

1. LIVING IN AN EXCITING WORLD. Even after we become Christians, God allows us to live in this time and tempo world. Filled with problems, difficulties, opportunities, and great adventures, the lives that we live in the bourne of time are both pleasing and anxious. There are certainly two reasons at least why the Christian is called upon to live, we might say, through stage one of his Christian life, in the world of time. The first reason is that we might grow in grace. The problems, the buffetings, the experiences of life all conspire together to make us strong in the Lord and capable, articulate, exemplary Christians. When we remember that God is "bringing many sons into glory" (Heb. 2:10), we will not resent the buffetings of life.

The second reason that we are called upon to live our lives in this world is so that we might be witnesses for Christ. The Lord Jesus announced that we were the ones who would be called upon to tell the story of the Gospel. God has chosen to represent Himself in this age not by angels or heavenly beings, but by human creatures. He uses redeemed men and women to represent the Gospel so that others too may come to know Christ as personal Savior. We must be good representatives of that Gospel! We must be ambassadors for Christ (2 Cor. 5:20).

2. OUR TRANSLATION FROM THIS WORLD TO THE WORLD TO COME. Yes, there is coming a time when our sojourn in the world and as creatures of time will be past. Then we will truly realize that the world of our earthly sojourn was "our light affliction, which is but for a moment" and it "works for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory" (2 Cor. 4:17). This life is certainly not an end in itself but rather it is the prelude to glory. How tragic that unsaved people have everything at stake in this world. By doing this, they make many mistakes, the greatest of which is they overemphasize the importance of this life. Yes, we will be translated from this world to the world to come. Let us remember that there are two possible methods by which this will take place.

A. Physical death. The Scripture tells us that "It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment" (Heb. 9:27). Death, however, while a sobering thought, should hold no terrors for the Christian.

B. The Rapture of the Church. The Scripture promises that there is a generation of Christians that will not die. Rather, they will be translated bodily from earth to heaven. “Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump” (1 Cor. 15:51-52). There is a dramatic moment coming up for that generation which lives in the world on the occasion of the return of Christ for His own.

3. THE JUDGMENT SEAT OF CHRIST. There is an evaluation time which has been appointed for every Christian. “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he has done, whether it be good or bad” (2 Cor. 5:10). The Judgment Seat of Christ will be an awesome experience. Some on that occasion will have nothing to present to the Lord except wood, hay, and stubble. Others will bring before the Lord gold, silver, and precious stones. Some will have their work burned up, whereas others will bear the treasure of spiritual accomplishment for all of eternity (1 Cor. 3:10-15). Remember that the Judgment Seat of Christ is for Christians only. The issue on that auspicious occasion will not be salvation. Salvation is settled forever the instant I believe in Jesus Christ and accept Him as my personal Savior. But at the Judgment Seat of Christ, the issue will be the works which I have accomplished as a result of believing on the Lord Jesus.

4. THE MARRIAGE SUPPER OF THE LAMB. We must remember that the Church is not only the Body of Christ, but the Church is also the Bride of Christ. God has appointed a tremendous occasion in which He will welcome His bride to heaven. The marriage supper of the Lamb will be an awesome occasion. There, those who are dressed in the white robes of His righteousness will enjoy the loveliest banquet, the most delightful occasion that will have been known in all of eternity. What a grand day that will be (Rev. 19:7-10)!

5. WE RETURN WITH CHRIST. Jesus Christ has promised to come again in power and great glory (Rev. 19:11-16). But He will come with an army which will consist of ten thousands of His saints (Jude 14). So the unfinished business that God has in this world will be completed by the glorious return of Christ as we return with Him. Upon that occasion, the Antichrist will be destroyed (2 Thess. 2:8). And the world will be made subject to the reign of the King of all kings, Christ Jesus Himself (Rev. 20:4-6).

Let us remember that, while these events are taking place for believers, there will be in the meantime another, less salutary series of events taking place in the world. The world, in that it is not the inheritor of destiny, will suffer a horrible fate. The events ahead for the world will include:

1. A DETERIORATING SOCIETY. The Scripture reminds us of “perilous times” coming upon the world. It even then announces that “Evil men and seducers shall become worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived” (2 Tim. 3:1,13). All of the promises of utopia will not avail, but rather the culture that has attempted to exist without God will lose its capacity to function. Anarchy, terrorism, crime, revolution, and war will come upon society with increasing frequency.

2. THE RISE OF ANTICHRIST. The Scripture indicates that a dreadful world ruler will be escalated to power and will become for a brief time the master of the earth. He will first rule a revived Roman Empire, and then will be escalated to world power. Initially, he will be a man of peace (Dan. 8:25) with a great plan for the future of the world. The result, however, will not be peace, but will be great destruction (1Thess. 5:2,3).

3. THE TRIBULATION. There is coming in the world a seven-year period which is called “Jacob’s trouble” (Jer. 30:7). In this time, the world will be the object of the wrath of God. The Scripture teaches that the world is even now treasuring up wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God (Rom. 2:5). That judgment will come in devastating fashion. During the days of the Tribulation, more than one half of the population of the world will die from war, plague, and many other things.

4. THE CONVERSION OF ISRAEL. During the days of the Tribulation, Israel will recognize Jesus Christ as its Messiah, and be converted to faith in Him. So the nation, now under a cycle of discipline, will be brought to faith in the Savior (Rev. 7:4-8).

5. GLOBAL EVANGELISM. From the state of Israel,

144,000 witnesses will tell the story, the Gospel of the kingdom across the world. While tribulation will come upon earth, the hope of Israel will burn brightly and be shared by all who will believe, both Jew and Gentile (Rev. 7:9-17).

6. THE DESTRUCTION OF ANTICHRIST AND THE CONSUMMATION OF HISTORY. This will be accomplished by the glorious return of Jesus Christ when He comes to put down all power and all authority. His glorious return will destroy the man of sin and bring in the great reign of righteousness that the world has so long sought but has been unable to obtain (2 Thess. 2:8).

7. THE MILLENNIAL REIGN OF CHRIST. It is true that Christ will reign where'er the sun doth its successive journeys run. Israel at that time will be the leading nation of the world, and Christ will rule from the Holy City, Jerusalem. The nations of the earth will be made to do obeisance then to the great King (Rev. 20:1-6).

Following the millennial reign of Christ there will be a brief, final rebellion against God (Rev. 20:9). The former things, the things of our present experience, will pass away. We will then move into an age of bliss and joy which is beyond description in human terms (1 Cor. 2:9).

We must all be reminded that the great issue of life, therefore, is to be sure that we know Jesus Christ as personal Savior. To every reader we would extend the reminder: “For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life” (John 3:16). By believing in Christ, we have everlasting life, and by neglecting or refusing to trust in Him as personal Savior, we have only everlasting death. Knowing Christ is therefore the great issue of all of life.

Be reminded also that service for Christ pays eternal dividends. The Christian who is committed to do the will of God and actually performs the fulfilling of that will can anticipate great rewards in heaven's glory.

From the writings of Dave Breese

Questions & Answers

Q. Will the Rapture really include all Christians living at that time? How about those who are not looking for a pre-Tribulation Rapture, or those who just got saved prior to the event?

A. Many scriptures point to the fact that those who follow Christ will be expectantly looking for His return. In fact, we know of no evangelical Christian denomination that does not teach the literal Second Coming of Christ. What they differ on is what form that literal return will take. Will there be a Rapture? If so, when will it occur in relationship to the Tribulation? Or will there just be one general Second Coming at the conclusion of the Tribulation, and that is it?

We believe any true born-again believer will look forward to the Lord's return. If we did not, what eternal purpose would there be in being saved? As the Apostle Paul said, “If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable” (1 Corinthians 15:19).

We are firmly committed to the doctrine of a pre-Tribulation Rapture of the Church. But we do believe it includes all true born-again members of the Body of Christ. Paul said “we shall ALL be changed” (1 Corinthians 15:51, [emphasis added]). Neither this nor the other most noteworthy Rapture passage, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, make any mention of “if you believe in it,” this will happen.

By way of analogy, if I drop something, I believe it will hit the floor. But even if I did not believe that, it would not prevent that object from falling to the ground. The law of gravity is not dependent upon one's belief in it. It operates regardless. We believe the same holds true for the pre-Tribulation Rapture.

Would a brand new Christian, who just accepted the Lord, go in the Rapture if it occurred momentarily thereafter. We believe they would.

The Bible places no more restriction on participation in the Rapture than it does for salvation. Belief in the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior is sufficient in both cases. Jesus told the dying thief he would be in Paradise that very day (Luke 23:43). If a person is a true, born-again child of God, he or she will be looking for Christ's return. This is true even if they have just accepted Christ, because in making such a decision, they will know why they had to do so--to prepare for His return. Thus, we believe that they will participate in the Rapture.

Similarly, think of a “deathbed conversion,” where a person professes Christ moments before death. Remembering that the Rapture will occur simultaneously with the Resurrection of the saints (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18), would we say that such a person would not rise? We think not. He or she will arise just like the rest of the righteous dead.

THE TIDE OF OUR TIMES

“THE ALLIANCE DEFENSE FUND (ADF) commissioned Public Opinion Strategies to do a comprehensive, scientific research study on marriage, using data from 1,500 Americans in 40 different focus groups coast to coast. The results are in, and show that 62% of Americans believe that marriage should be defined only as the union of one man and one woman. Fifty-three percent strongly agreed...only thirty-five percent disagreed.”

FROM THE LIGONIER MINISTRIES BLOG: “In the last 25 years, several Christian thinkers have focused on the different angles of [the big ideas that shape our culture.]...The late Dave Breese wrote Seven Men Who Rule the World from the Grave...This is a fine introductory overview of the worldviews of Darwin, Marx, Wellhausen, Dewey, Keynes, Kierkegaard, and Freud.”

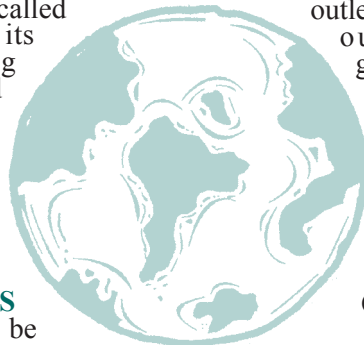

“THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE flooded into the streets [of Juba]...to celebrate the birth of the world’s newest nation, the Republic of South Sudan...[It] has endured a 50 year civil war that cost more than 2 million lives...Violence is still endemic...South Sudan will be on foreign life support, dependent on a massive multilateral nation-building project to prevent humanitarian catastrophe.”

DID YOU KNOW? There are 193 countries in the world.

“APPLE INC. SAYS it has removed an application called ‘ThirdIntifada’ from its App Store following complaints that it glorified violence against Israel. Israel’s information minister, Yuli Edelstein, requested the company remove the app.”

“THE KING JAMES BIBLE must certainly be considered as the greatest literary work in the English language. And most of it must be attributed to William Tyndale. Not even the writings of Shakespeare have had as much of a lasting impact on the way English-speaking people talk today.

Here are just a few examples of famous English phrases:

‘A fly in the ointment’ (Ecc. 10:1)
‘At wit’s end’ (Psalm 107:27)
‘Crystal clear’ (Rev. 21:11)
‘Far be it from me’ (2 Sam. 20:20)
‘Gird one’s loins’ (2 Kings 4:29)
‘Holier than thou’ (Isaiah 65:5)
‘Labor of love’ (Hebrews 6:10)
‘Rise and shine’ (Isaiah 60:1)
‘Run for your life’ (1 Kings 19:3)
‘Sick to death’ (2 Kings 20:1)
‘Hold your peace’ (Ex 14:14)
‘Signs of the times’ (Matt. 16:3)”

THE CHILDREN'S ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

by Selina Hastings
Illustrated by Eric Thomas

STUNNING ILLUSTRATIONS

The story of the Bible is retold especially for children in clear, lively language that retains the poetry of the traditional KJV text. Color photographs of plants, animals, people, and places of the Bible lands set the stories in context. Who's Who in the Bible Stories--from Aaron to Zedekiah.
